

THOMAS MITCHELL PRIMARY SCHOOL

5JC, 5RC and ½ of 5MR EXCURSION

COAL CREEK COMMUNITY PARK AND MUSEUM

9th August, 2018

Introduction/Links to Curriculum:

As part of the Year Five History Unit, students will be travelling to Coal Creek Community Park and Museum to be able to experience what rural life was like in the late 1800's and early 1900s. Students will be taking part in three different activities; Timber Skills Demonstration which allows students to see how early settlers used bush tools to create their homes, Bush Cooking where students will make damper while learning about family life of the early settlers and Compare and Contrast the Past as students explore the different buildings on site and compare their own lives to that of the past.
