WRITE AWAY WITH ME – ‘PLEASED TO MEET YOU’ WRITING WORKSHOP

28th March, 2019

Introduction/Links to Curriculum:

The Year 4s will participate in an exciting ‘Write Away With Me’ workshop facilitated by Beth Cregan on the theme: ‘Pleased to Meet You’. In this workshop, students catapult straight into the world of paper sculpture and create a 3D character to star in a piece of writing. But in order for these characters to come to life in the world of fiction, young writers will need to get to know them a little better. What’s the character’s name? What do they like to eat and drink? What frightens them? What makes them happy? These details and more will be captured on Character Maps. Then using a simple storytelling structure, students will develop their narrative plan. This workshop will be an important continuation to build on the skills learnt from the writing workshop in Year 3, and will also effectively support the Year 4 narrative writing unit for Term 2.
